

Climate change. We can't stay on this path.

Turn back
the tide.

Climate change is affecting our province, but not in a good way. In Labrador, glaciers are melting and warmer temperatures are affecting winter ice conditions, which many communities rely on for transportation. So it's getting harder to get around in winter. We have to change direction. To learn more and get started, visit TurnBackTheTide.ca

